Cover and Two Fatally

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., November 22.— Twot little tots met with a horrible fate at Berryville about 7:20 o'clock last Tuesday night. They were Frances and Prestman, the nine-year-old daughter and firman, the nine-year-old daughter and fif-teen months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ifughes, who had been left alones in the par, or of the home of their grandmother. Mrs. L. E. Ricamore for a few minutes. Prestman, while at play pulled the table cover and lamp from the stand and the lamp exploded, instantly covering the children with blazing, o... Their screams attracted the attention of Lester Robey, who was walking along the Street, and he ran to their assistance, little knowing what was wrong with them. As he oneed the door, Frances the Street, and he ran to their assistance, ittle knowing what was wrong with them. As he opened the door, Frances ran to him a mass of seething flame and regardless of his own danger he picked the child up in his arms and carried her to the rear of the house, where the clothing wa storn from her body. She clothing wa storn from her body. She was badly burned about the arms, breast and face, and died twelve hours later. Prestman was carried from the room by his twelve-vear-old brother, and was as

Why Was Pennsy Held Back.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, November 22.—The fallure of Pennsylvania to respond to the recent upward movement in most other stocks was the subject of a good deal of discussions and in some conservative quarter where the stock is regarded as relatively cheap to theory that It had been held back for a special purpose found ready acceptance. This theory followed the reasoning that Pennsylvania was held in reserve so as to be available to do service in maintaining an appearance of strength after the market had
